

Continuing Education Units available at the 2019 Council of Educators in Landscape Architecture conference at the Sheraton Grand Hotel, 1230 J Street, Sacramento, CA

Thursday, March 7

Session 1, Thursday 8:30-10

- Transitory Public Works: Maintenance as a Design Instrument in Landscape Architecture (Bataglieri Room)
- An Ecotourism Model for Kekaha Kai State Park, Hawai'i Island (McGinnis)
- Engaging the Fight for BIM in Landscape Architecture (Clark)

Session 2, Thursday 1:30-3

- Climate, Stormwater and the Pacific North West - Reimagining water management and community on Vancouver's North Shore (McGinnis)

Session 3, Thursday 4-5:30

- Curious Methods: contextual interrogation as design (Bataglieri)

Friday, March 8

Session 4, Friday 8:30-10

- Plant survival trials on a custom living wall system (Kamilos)
- Guidelines for a New, Floating Open Space (Kamilos)
- Assessing the capitalization effects of retention and detention ponds on single-family housing values (Kamilos)
- Patterns in the Dust: parametric design of large-scale dust mitigation and ecological restoration (McGinnis)

Saturday, March 9

Session 5 – Saturday 8:30-10

- Exploring Maintenance-friendly Planting Design for Green Stormwater Infrastructure (Schmidt)

Session 6 – Saturday 2–3:30

- Making Landscape: Material Selection in the Performance Era (Hendricks)

Session 7 - Saturday 4-5:30

- Redefining Education in Africa: Creating African-centric Learning Environments Through Culturally Identifiable Landscapes (Bataglieri)
- Residential preference, residential satisfaction and sustainability: Lessons from a campus town (Compagno)
- European Green Capitals: Performance in Sustainable Development (Compagno)

